

The Gateway Building
Phoenixville, PA

New Century Bank Mini-Branch Entrance

Main Entranceway

Main Lobby

Positioned at the southeast corner of Starr and Bridge Streets (Route 29), The Gateway at French Creek offers 33,500 square feet of Class A corporate office space in the first commercial structure to be built in French Creek Center.

As the corporate headquarters of The Delta Organization and its' affiliated entity, The Phoenix Property Group, developer of French Creek Center, The Gateway at French Creek enjoys a commanding presence at the main entrance of the urban renaissance that is positioning Phoenixville for dynamic growth in the years to come.

From a grand lobby fronting Starr and Bridge streets, tenants in The Gateway at French Creek are just steps away from the fine cuisine and ambiance of Phoenixville's historic Columbia Hotel, The Black Lab Bistro, and other equally superb dining environments along Bridge Street. These eateries, plus a wide variety of service merchants such as banks, clothiers, cleaners, gift shops, jewelers, and other retailers are also within a short distance.